

Allocation recovers what the fixed per-step cost takes away

Below $P = 50\%$ the two curves coincide: $m = \lfloor G/k \rfloor = 1$, so there is nothing to reallocate.